

What's in the Bag?

By Lane Osborne

Steve Dresser is a Class A Member of the PGA, a former Palmer Maples Award recipient, and the founder of the Steve Dresser Golf Academy in Pawleys Island, South Carolina which has been in operation for twenty-five years, making it the longest running golf school on the Grand Strand.

The success and longevity of Dresser's golf school is a testament to his and his staff's insight into the game of golf, exceptional communication skills, and warm personalities—qualities that have garnered the attention and praise of publications such as Condé Naste Traveler, Golfer's Guide, Myrtle Beach Golf, and Travel & Leisure Golf which touted his academy as "One of the top golf schools in the country."

While Dresser's career has included co-hosting the TV show "Celebrity Tee Time" with Mickey Jones of "Home Improvement" fame, writing for Senior Golfer and Golf Digest among other publications, and publishing his own book, Golf From the Ground Up, he's often happiest when on the driving range or golf course helping golfers of all skill levels improve their games.
